

ALGUIRE MEMORIAL CALLERS SCHOOL 2019

Sunday Evening August 18th through Friday August 23th
NOVA SCOTIA, CANADA

Guest Teacher: Ron Lowe from New Brunswick

Staff Teachers: Dottie Welch and Kerry Fletcher, both from Nova Scotia

Cuers: If there is interest, the Crowes will arrange a two-day workshop.

Curriculum: We are planning to cover the full CALLERLAB recommended School Curriculum with two levels of training appropriate for new and experienced callers. Our Curriculum will include Choreographic Management, Teaching Techniques, Successful Programming, Using Music Effectively, Creating Smooth Dancing, and Leadership Development. We will have some combined sessions and some separate sessions depending on the benefits of sharing ideas versus focusing on current abilities. There will be plenty of microphone time as well as opportunities for professional evaluation of your skills and suggestions on ways to enhance your calling career.

Schedule: The Callers School will begin with a Sunday evening get-together on August 18th. The following week will feature full days with a workshop each morning, afternoon, and evening for a total of 8 hours per day. If there is interest, there may be a cuers workshop on Wednesday and Thursday. The school will end with a special dance on Friday evening, August 23rd, 7:30 pm at Elm River Campground.

Primary Location: Elm River Park Campground, Glenholme, Nova Scotia
Highway 104 East, Exit 11 to Highway 2 & 4, 2.5 km east on the Glenholme Loop
